³⁴[CHAPTER VA ISSUANCE AND LISTING OF NON-CONVERTIBLE SECURITIES ISSUED ON A PRIVATE PLACEMENT BASIS

Filing of general information document and key information document

50A. (1) An issuer making a private placement of non-convertible securities, and seeking listing thereof on stock exchange(s), shall file a general information document with the stock exchange(s), which shall contain the following disclosures, namely, -

- (a) disclosures specified in Schedule I of these regulations;
- (b) disclosures specified in the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013), as applicable; and
- (c) additional disclosures as may be specified by the Board:

Provided that the provisions of this regulation shall be applicable on a 'comply or explain' basis until March 31, 2024 and on a mandatory basis thereafter:

Provided further that issuers making second or subsequent offers of non-convertible securities, during the validity of the shelf placement memorandum filed prior to the date of this regulation coming into force, shall not be required to file the general information document for such second or subsequent issuances so long as the key information document is filed in accordance with these regulations:

Provided further that an issuer that has filed a shelf prospectus in case of public issue under these regulations and subsequently intends to issue non-convertible securities on a private placement basis and seeks listing thereof, within the validity period of such shelf prospectus, shall not be required to file a general information document so long as the key information document is filed in accordance with these regulations.

³⁴ Inserted by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Non-Convertible Securities) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2023, w.e.f. 06-07-2023.

Explanation I. – For the purposes of this regulation, “comply or explain” means that the issuer shall endeavour to comply and achieve full compliance, by filing a general information document instead of a placement memorandum for private placement of non-convertible securities sought to be listed, until March 31, 2024. In case the entity is not able to achieve full compliance with the provisions, till such time, it shall explain the reasons for such non-compliance or partial compliance, and the steps initiated to achieve full compliance, in such form and manner as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

Explanation II. – Nothing in this regulation shall exempt an entity undertaking a scheme of arrangement, under regulation 37 or regulation 59A or both of the listing regulations, from the filing of a general information document under sub-regulation (1), to be filed by the resultant entity, post implementation of such scheme of arrangement.

Explanation III. – For the purposes of this regulation, “shelf placement memorandum” means a placement memorandum in relation to the first issuance of non-convertible securities issued on a private placement basis, issued prior to this regulation coming into force and valid as on the date of this regulation coming into force.

(2) The general information document shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of opening of the first offer of non-convertible securities made under that general information document.

(3) In respect of a second or subsequent offer of non-convertible securities, during the period of validity of that general information document under sub-regulation (2), no further general information document shall be required to be filed.

(4) The general information document may indicate the size of the issue i.e., the amount of monies which the issuer proposes to raise during the period of validity of the general information document.

(5) An issuer making a private placement of second or subsequent offer of non-convertible securities, during the validity of the general information document or a shelf prospectus or a shelf placement memorandum, as the case may be, shall file a key information document for each such second or subsequent offer of non-convertible securities, with the stock exchange(s).

(6) The key information document shall contain the following information:

- (a) details of the offer of non-convertible securities in respect of which the key information document is being issued;
- (b) financial information, if such information provided in the general information document is more than six months old;
- (c) material changes, if any, in the information provided in the general information document;
- (d) any material developments not disclosed in the general information document, since the issue of the general information document relevant to the offer of non-convertible securities in respect of which the key information document is being issued; and

- (e) disclosures applicable in case of private placement of non-convertible securities as specified in schedule I, in case the second or subsequent offer is made during the validity of the shelf prospectus for which no general information document has been filed.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this regulation, “material” shall mean anything which is likely to impact an investor’s informed investment decision.

(7) The disclosures made under this regulation shall be made on the websites of stock exchange(s) where such securities are proposed to be listed and shall be made available for download in PDF or any other format as may be specified by the Board.

(8) The issuer shall ensure that the audited financial statements disclosed under this regulation are not more than six months old from the date of filing draft placement memorandum or the issue opening date, as applicable:

Provided that issuers:

- (a) whose non-convertible securities or specified securities are listed on recognised stock exchange(s), who are in compliance with the listing regulations, or
- (b) who are subsidiaries of entities who have listed their specified securities, and are in compliance with the listing regulations, may disclose unaudited financial information instead of audited financial statements for the interim period in the format as specified under the listing regulations, along with the limited review report, as filed with the stock exchange(s), subject to necessary disclosures, including risk factors, in this regard.

CHAPTER V B REQUIREMENTS FOR LARGE CORPORATES

- 50B. (1) A listed entity, fulfilling the criteria as may be specified by the Board, shall be considered as a ‘Large Corporate’.
- (2) Such Large Corporates shall comply with the conditions or requirements, as may be specified by the Board from time to time.]

CHAPTER VI LISTING OF COMMERCIAL PAPER

51. (1) Issuers desirous of listing of commercial paper shall comply with the conditions as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

³⁵[(1A) An issuer that has filed a general information document under these regulations and subsequently intends to issue commercial paper and seeks listing thereof, during the validity period of such general information document, shall file a key information document with the disclosures as may be specified by the Board.

(1B) An issuer that has filed a shelf prospectus in case of public issue under these regulations and subsequently intends to issue Commercial Paper and seeks listing thereof, during the validity period of such shelf prospectus, shall not be required to file a general information document so long as the key information document is filed in accordance with these regulations.]

(2) The designated stock exchange shall collect a regulatory fee as specified in Schedule VI of these regulations from an issuer of commercial paper at the time of their listing.

(3) The issuer shall apply for Securities and Exchange Board of India Complaints Redress System (SCORES) authentication in the format specified by the Board and shall use the same for issuance and listing of commercial paper.

³⁶[CHAPTER VIA ONLINE BOND PLATFORM PROVIDERS

Registration of online bond platform providers.

51A. (1) No person shall act as an online bond platform provider without a certificate of registration from the Board as a stock broker under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Stock Brokers) Regulations, 1992.

(2) Such person shall comply with the conditions of registration and such other requirements as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulations (1) and (2) of this regulation, a person acting as an online bond platform provider without the certificate of registration on or prior to the date of this regulation coming into force, may continue to do so for a period of three months from the date of this regulation coming into force or such other time period as may be specified by the Board, or if it has made an application for grant of a certificate of registration within the specified period, till the disposal of such application by the Board.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this Chapter, “online bond platform provider” means any person operating or providing an online bond platform and “online bond platform” means any electronic system, other than a recognised stock exchange or an electronic book provider

CHAPTER VII

PROCEDURE FOR ACTION IN CASE OF VIOLATION OF REGULATIONS

Inspection by the Board

52. (1) The Board may suo-moto or upon information received by it, appoint one or more persons to undertake the inspection of the books of account, records and documents of the issuer or lead manager(s) or any other intermediary associated with the issue, for any of the following purposes, namely, -

- (a) to verify whether the provisions of the Act, the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013), Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956), the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996) and/or the rules and regulations made thereunder in respect of issue of securities have been complied with;
- (b) to verify whether the requirements in respect of issue of non-convertible securities as specified in these regulations have been complied with;
- (c) to verify whether the requirements of listing conditions and continuous disclosure requirements have been complied with;
- (d) to inquire into the complaints received from investors, other market participants or any other persons on any matter of issue and transfer of non-convertible securities governed under these regulations;
- (e) to inquire into affairs of the issuer in the interest of investor protection or the integrity of the market governed under these regulations; and,
- (f) to inquire whether any direction issued by the Board has been complied with.

(2) While undertaking an inspection under these regulations, the inspecting authority or the Board, as the case may be, shall follow the procedure specified by the Board for inspection of the intermediaries.

Directions by the Board

53. Without prejudice to the action under Sections 11, 11A, 11 B, 11D, sub- section (3) of Section 12 , Chapter VIA and Section 24 of the Act or Section 439 of the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013), the Board may either suo-moto or on receipt of information or on completion or pendency of inspection, inquiry or investigation, in the interests of the securities market, issue or pass such directions as it deems fit including any or all of the following:

- (a) directing the issuer to refund of the application monies to the applicants in an issue;
- (b) directing the persons concerned not to further deal in securities in any particular manner;
- (c) directing the persons concerned not to access the securities market for a particular period;
- (d) restraining the issuer or its promoters or directors from making further issues of non-convertible securities;
- (e) directing the person concerned to sell or divest the non-convertible securities;

- (f) directing the issuer or the depository not to give effect to transfer or directing further freeze of transfer of non-convertible securities;
- (g) any other direction which the Board may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that the Board shall, either before or after issuing such directions, give an opportunity of being heard to the persons against whom the directions are issued or proposed to be issued:

Provided further that if any ex-parte direction is required to be issued, the Board may give post decisional hearing to affected person.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Delegation

54. The powers exercisable by the Board under these regulations shall be exercisable by any officer of the Board to whom such powers are delegated by the Board.

Power of the Board to issue general order or circular.

55. (1) The Board may by a general or special order or circular specify any conditions or requirement in respect of issue of non-convertible securities.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power and provisions of these regulations, such orders or circulars may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

- (a) electronic issuances and other issue procedures including the procedure for price discovery;
- (b) conditions governing trading, reporting, clearing and settlement of trade in non-convertible securities;
- (c) listing conditions.

(3) In case any special order is proposed to be issued to any particular issuer or intermediary on a specific issue, no such order shall be issued unless an opportunity to represent is given to the person affected by such order.

Power to remove difficulty and issue clarifications

56. In order to remove any difficulties in the application or interpretation of the provisions of these regulations, the Board may issue clarifications and/or guidelines from time to time.

Power to relax strict enforcement of the regulations

57. (1) The Board may, on an application made by any issuer, relax any of the procedural requirements or conditions or strict enforcement of these regulations, if the Board is satisfied that:

- (a) requirement is procedural or technical in nature; or
- (b) requirement causes undue hardship to a particular class of industry or a particular issuer or a class of issuers from accessing the securities market; or

- (c) relaxation is in the interest of substantial number of investors; or
- (d) such relaxation will be in the interest of securities market.

(2) For seeking relaxation from any of the provisions of this regulation, an application giving details and the grounds on which, such relaxation has been sought, shall be filed with the Board.

(3) The application referred to under sub-regulation 2 shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of rupees one lakh, payable by way of direct credit in the bank account through electronic modes including payment gateways or such other mode allowed by the Reserve Bank of India.

(4) The Board may, exempt any person or class of persons from the operation of all or any of the provisions of these regulations for a period as may be specified but not exceeding twelve months, for furthering innovation relating to testing new products, processes, services, business models, etc. in live environment of regulatory sandbox in the securities markets.

(5) Any exemption granted by the Board under sub-regulation (4) shall be subject to the applicant satisfying such conditions as may be specified by the Board including conditions to be complied with on a continuous basis.

Explanation: For the purposes of these regulations, "regulatory sandbox" means a live testing environment where new products, processes, services, business models, etc. may be deployed on a limited set of eligible customers for a specified period of time, for furthering innovation in the securities market, subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Board.

Relaxation of strict enforcement of Rule 19 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1957

58. In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (7) of Rule 19 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1957, the Board relaxes the strict enforcement of:

- (a) sub-rules (1) and (3) of Rule 19 the said rules in relation to listing of an issue of non-convertible securities;
- (b) clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 19 of the said rules in relation to listing of debt securities:
 - i. issued by way of a private placement by any issuer; and,
 - ii. issued to the public by an infrastructure company, a Government company, a statutory authority or corporation or any special purpose vehicle set up by any of them, which is engaged in the infrastructure sector.

Explanation: For the purposes of this regulation the term 'infrastructure sector' shall have the same meaning assigned to it under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018.

Repeal and Savings

59. (1) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Debt Securities) Regulations, 2008 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Non-Convertible Redeemable Preference Shares) Regulations, 2013 shall stand repealed from the date on which these regulations come to force.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal:

- (a) anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken including observation made in respect of any draft offer document, any adjudication, enquiry or investigation commenced or show-cause notice issued under the repealed regulations, prior to such repeal, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations;
- (b) any application made to the Board under the repealed regulations, prior to such repeal, and pending before it shall be deemed to have been made under the corresponding provisions of these regulations; and,
- (c) the previous operation of the repealed regulations or anything duly done or suffered thereunder, any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the repealed regulations, any penalty, incurred in respect of any violation committed against the repealed regulations, or any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty as aforesaid, shall remain unaffected as if the repealed regulations has never been repealed.

(3) Subsequent to the repeal of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Debt Securities) Regulations, 2008 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Non-Convertible Redeemable Preference Shares) Regulations, 2013, any reference thereto in any other regulations made, guidelines or circulars issued thereunder by the Board shall be deemed to be a reference to the corresponding provisions of these regulations.
